DOD for User Story:

Coding for the story completed.

Web interface is designed.

Code review is done.

Made sure that interface is user friendly.

Errors while debugging are solved.

Unit testing of every unit is done.

DOD for Sprint End Increment:

All stories satisfied the DOD of story.

Units are integrated and integration tested.

Performance tested.

Acceptance tested.

No errors in the entire project.

No major loopholes in the software.

System documentation and user documentations are updated.